Will back BJP's decision on next CM, says Shinde

Mahayuti allies Shiv Sena, NCP likely to get deputy CM posts

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, 27 November

Notwithstanding the posturing by his Shiv Sena cadre that he continue as Maharashtra Chief Minister, Eknath Shinde on Wednesday made it clear that he has assured PM Modi of abiding by whatever decision the BJP takes on naming his successor.

Addressing a press conference, Shinde said he will "fully support" BJP leadership's decision to name the next CM, and won't be a hurdle in the process.

"I called PM Modi and Amit Shah yesterday and told them to decide (on who will be the CM post), and assured them that I will abide by whatever decision they take," Shinde said.

"Our Shiv Sena will fully support the BJP's decision to name the next Maharashtra CM. There is no speed breaker from our side," Shinde said.

Shinde rubbished reports that he was disappointed for not getting a second term as CM. "Nobody is annoyed. We have worked as Mahayuti," he said.

EKNATH SHINDE, Shiv Sena chief

Maharashtra NDA leaders may meet the top BJP brass in New Delhi on Thursday, sources said, indicating that the formula of one chief minister and two deputy CMs representing the three major 'Mahayuti' constituents will be followed in the new government in the state.

While the BJP is tipped to get the chief ministerial post, its two allies — Shiv Sena and Nationalist Congress Party — are expected to be given the post of two deputies.

Shiv Sena MPs on Wednesday met Union Home Minister Amit Shah, days after the BJP-led Mahayuti registered a landslide victory in the Maharashtra Assembly elections.

Union minister and RPI (A) leader Ramdas Athawale voiced support for Devendra Fadnis as the next chief minister but stressed that he would abide by the BJP "high command's" decision.

He also said the RPI (A) will respect the high command's decision if it picks Eknath Shinde as the chief minister.

Meanwhile, Maharashtra Congress President Nana Patole alleged that the BJP's pressured Eknath Shinde to give up his claim on the chief minister's post.

"It has been BJP's custom to suddenly bring a new face," Patole said.

Houses adjourned amid Opposition protest

Parliament failed to transact any significant business on the second day of the winter session as protests by opposition members who were pressing for discussions on allegations of irregularities against the Adani Group, Sambhal violence and other issues rocked both Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha on Wednesday.

The two Houses were adjourned once in the morning and later for the day amid continuing uproar by opposition members.

Soon after the Lok Sabha met,

Speaker Om Birla took up the Question Hour, but adjourned the House proceedings following sloganeering by the opposition members.

They wanted to discuss the allegations of irregularities against the Adani group and the recent violence in Sambhal during a court-ordered survey of a mosque. They trooped into the Well of the House raising slogans as soon as the House met again at 12 noon.

BJP member Dilip Saikia, who was in the chair, adjourned the proceedings for the day after official papers, rest on the table.

In Rajya Sabha, the trouble started after Chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar rejected 18 notices under a rule of the House to suspend scheduled business to take up issues including the demand for a joint parliamentary committee (JPC) probe into the Adani issue.

The proceedings were briefly adjourned due to opposition protests, and when the House re-assembled at 11.30 am, there were identical scenes. This prompted Chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar to adjourn the proceedings for the day, saying the "House is not in order".

e-Daakhil portal rolled out across India; e-Jagruti next

The government on Wednesday said the 'e-Daakhil portal' — an inexpensive, speedy, and hassle-free mechanism for filing consumer complaints — has been rolled out in all states and union territories. The government is also working for launch of e-Jagruti, which will further streamline case filing, tracking, and management, ensuring a hassle-free experience for consumers and other stakeholders, it said. Currently, 281,024 users have registered on the e-Daakhil portal, and 198,725 cases have been filed.

No change in margins for ration shop dealers

Food Minister Pralhad Joshi said the Centre has no immediate proposal to increase the margins for fair price shops dealers under the Targeted Public Distribution System. He underscored that the operational responsibilities, including licensing, supervision and monitoring, rest entirely with state, UT governments.

House panel on Waqf Bill to seek term extension

The parliamentary committee scrutinising the Waqf (Amendment) Bill on Wednesday unanimously decided to seek an extension in its tenure till the last day of the next Budget Session after its meeting was marked by protests by the Opposition over Chairperson Jagdambika Pal's stand that its draft report was ready to be adopted. The meeting began on a stormy note as the opposition staged a walkout. Temperatures cooled down after Pal and the BJP members of the committee reached out to them, indicating their willingness to press for an extension of the November 29 deadline of to submit its report to Lok Sabha.

More stringent laws needed to curb vulgar content on social media: Vaishnaw

Union minister Ashwini Vaishnaw said there is a need to make existing laws more stringent to curb vulgar content on social media platforms. Speaking in Lok Sabha, the Information and Broadcasting Minister said the Parliamentary Standing Committees should take up the issue and also called for a consensus to frame more strict laws in this regard.

Earlier, there were editorial checks but those have ended. Today, social media is a platform for the freedom of press but it is uncontrolled and there is vulgar content, he said during the Question Hour. There is a need to make existing laws more stringent to curb vulgar content on social media platforms, the minister said.

He was responding to questions by BJP member Arun Govil about existing mechanisms to check the illegal telecast of vulgar content through social media platforms.

State aims to sparkle in gem & jewellery sector

VIRENDRA SINGH RAWAT
Lucknow, 27 November

With Uttar Pradesh's annual gems and jewellery trade estimated at over ₹1 trillion, the state government is taking significant steps to boost the industry, focusing on economic value addition and export growth.

More than one million traders, retailers, craftsmen, and designers are directly involved in this sector, which spans manufacturing and exports. Major hubs include Meerut, Lucknow, the NOIDA Export Processing Zone, Moradabad, Kanpur, and Agra.

The Yogi Adityanath government has drafted a blueprint to develop Meerut as a major jewellery manufacturing and trading hub for North India. Meerut's jewellery industry generates an annual turnover of over ₹2,000 crore and employs approximately 40,000 goldsmiths, gemstone makers, and jewellery traders.

"The proposed hub, spanning 32,000 square meters, would position Meerut as a key center for gems, precious stones, and gold jewellery," a senior UP government official said. To support this vision, the government plans to construct a modern multi-storey flatted factory complex to foster business growth and encourage startups in the gems and jewellery sector.

The organised segment of the gems and jewellery trade in the state accounts for about 35 per cent of the overall ₹1 trillion market. "Apart from retail trade, UP has a thriving wholesale jewellery market that serves clients from other states as well," said Saumitra Saraf, director, Gorakhpur-based Aishhpra Gems and Jewels. He noted that the company is investing ₹100 crore to develop an integrated jewellery manufacturing hub in Gorakhpur.

The gems and jewellery sector contributes 10-12 per cent of India's total merchandise exports and ranks among the top commodity segments.

Global air cargo hub back on schedule

R KRISHNA DAS
Raipur, 27 November

After nearly a decade, the proposed international air cargo hub at Swami Vivekanand airport in Raipur is likely to see the light of day.

"The proposal for an international air cargo hub was discussed during the meeting with Union Civil Aviation Minister Kinjarapu Rammohan Naidu and he has agreed to examine and take necessary action," Chhattisgarh Chief Minister Vishnu Deo Sai said.

Chhattisgarh will soon connect with Singapore and Dubai as the minister has agreed to start operation of international flights from the state capital, Sai added.

According to Airport Authority of India (AAI) officials, they were ready with the infrastructure for the international air cargo hub as they were already operating a domestic cargo centre at the old terminal building.

It will not be a big task to convert the centre, but other formalities have to be completed from the end of the ministry of foreign affairs and finance. Handling international flights and cargo would require custom and immigration set up, the officials added. The plan for the international air cargo hub was conceptualised in 2013 by the then Raman Singh government.
